Final test	60%

TOTAL                    100%

Study & Assignment Schedule

See separate file.

Description of assignments:

Exams are given in three formats:

1. Weekly vocabulary tests: Out of the vocabulary you have learnt, ten words will be chosen for the student to translate into English. One equivalent, English word is sufficient for each Greek word.
2. Section tests: These tests will reflect the content of one section in the grammar book. The section tests are not graded because they are taken without a proctor (cf. the mid-term and final tests below).
3. Mid-term test: This test is graded and must be taken with a proctor, which means you must assign a person you and the teacher can trust, e.g. in your church or at your work-place who can administer the test for you: the proctor will receive the test in an e-mail, print it, hand it out to you, oversee the test, receive it when finished and scan it back to the teacher. The proctor can not be a close relative.
4. Final test: The final test is also graded and is comprehensive. Like the mid-term test, the final test must be administered by a proctor.
